

FIVE ESCAPE TAIL IN HENRICO COUNTY; 2 ARE RECAPTURED

Prisoners Crawl Through Tin Ventilator Over Cells to Roof of Prison.

POLICE ON TRAIL OF THREE STILL AT LARGE

Warden Hechler and Policeman Dawson Find Two Hiding in Courthouse.

ALL RAILROADS ARE GUARDED

Flight Is Puzzle to Keepers, as Exit Is Hidden From Cages.

One of the most daring and successful jail deliveries to occur in Virginia in many years was effected last night about 3 o'clock when five white prisoners escaped from the Henrico County Jail at Twenty-second and Main Streets.

Quick work on the part of the jail warden, H. G. Hechler, and City Policeman Fred Dawson resulted in the capture of two of the escaped prisoners. The other three made good their escape, and are still at large.

All of the prisoners who escaped were located in a section of the jail on the side nearest to the courthouse. They were all confined in the second tier of cells. It is thought that a bunk from one of the cells was used to force a bar of the cage, from which the prisoners climbed to the top of their cells. Just how long before they made good their escape is not known, but investigation showed that they limited their work to the ventilator to the roof, where the ventilator was bent back and outlet gained to the roof of the jail. From there the five crawled across the top of an elevated bridge, forced entrance through one of the windows in the Henrico County Courthouse.

Windows Guarded Open. Several windows in various parts of the courthouse were found open when the escape was investigated, which is thought to indicate that the men had provided about the building. The warden is now deciding to take a fifteen-foot chain to the rear window of the building to the cobblestone pavement below.

The alarm was given by passers-by on Main Street, who saw one of the escaped men crawling across the connecting bridge. The warden was at once notified and he ran outside in time to see two of the men in the yard at the rear of the jail. Hechler emptied his revolver at the escaping prisoners, but he later said that he did not believe that any of the shots were effective. However, those shots caused one of the men, who later gave his name as McComb, to halt in his tracks and the warden dragged him back into the jail.

Policeman Dawson Aids. In the meantime Policeman Fred Dawson, of the First Station, arrived on the scene and joined in the search. Upon entering and searching the premises of the courthouse, Dawson discovered Adrian Antoyca, Antoyca attempted to hold the officer from behind a door, but Dawson shouldered his way through and nabbed the second man. Further search availed nothing. Several men in the vicinity said that they saw two or three men run down Twenty-second Street, the railroad tracks and the river.

Chief Sees, of the Henrico County police, was summoned immediately to the scene and quickly sent out an alarm to all the railroads of Richmond and the city police.

Seizure Puzled Over Escape. Considering the early hour of the night and the fact that many persons were passing the jail at the time, the escape is said by Chief Seay to be an especially daring feat. How the men, confined as they were to their narrow quarters, could have discovered

All but two of the submarine crew were taken off and transferred to the Watch Hill Coast Guard Station.

DUSSELDORF REAL QUIET

Many Manufacturers and Persons of Wealth Are Moving Into the Interior.

[By Associated Press.] DUSSELDORF, March 18.—The occupation area has been extended from Duisburg to stations all along the railroad running from Duisburg to Essen to within two and a half miles of Essen. The central freight yard at Wedau, the largest in the Ruhr district, and Mulheim station are guarded by French troops. Düsseldorf is quiet.

A number of manufacturers and business men are moving their offices to Berlin, Hanover and other interior cities of Germany, and some are transferring their entire plants. Many wealthy persons also are moving into the interior.

Business in Düsseldorf is extremely dull, and the restaurants are empty, but many Frenchmen and their families are beginning to crowd the shopping district.

ARRIVAL OF BRITISH SHIPS. ENGAGES HUNN ATTENTION. [By Associated Press.] BRITLIN, March 18.—Franco-Spanish troops have occupied the western quarter of Mulheim-on-Ruhr and the railway station at Speldorf. Other small allied forces have occupied the west railway station at Oberhausen and locks in the vicinity of the Emscher Canal.

The second entry of some armed British ships in German harbors, it was announced in the Reichstag today, is seriously engaging the attention of the German government, in view of the "gravity of the principle involved."

Chancellor Ebertsch urged the speedy passage of the declaration of neutrality, for which neither he nor the government could take the responsibility, would entail danger.

A reichstag committee is discussing the measure.

Reports of isolated clashes in a number of Upper Silesia districts have caused the German government to protest to the international commission in Oppeln against the revival of what it terms "Polish terrorism."

In official quarters it was declared today that several outrages were committed in the Rybnik district in the last few days, houses having been burned, one man murdered and others injured.

SOCIALISTS WILL NOT PICKET WHITE HOUSE IN QUEST OF AMNESTY

Will Seek to Show by Petition That Demand for Release of Prisoners Is General.

[By Associated Press.] WASHINGTON, March 18.—An announcement was made today by Mrs. Harriet Stanton Watts, Socialist leader, that the Socialist party here "that there would be no picketing of the White House in Socialist efforts to have amnesty extended to those imprisoned under the espionage act."

"Now that the President has asked Attorney-General Daugherty to review the case of Eugene V. Debs," she said, "it is all the more imperative for us to continue our work of securing a widely signed petition in order to show the administration how general the demand is over the country for amnesty of political prisoners."

"We want a general amnesty law passed by Congress," Mrs. Blatch added, "and on April 13 delegations will come to Washington to present in a perfectly orderly fashion, the petition which has been rolled up asking for the release of political prisoners."

WOMAN SIEZED AS SLAYER OF WEALTHY POLITICIAN

Daughter of Former Partner Kills Arkansas Man in Her Mother's Home.

[By Associated Press.] STUTTGART, ARL., March 18.—John McVey, wealthy business man and politician, who has had an unusual record in the Criminal Courts of the State, was shot and instantly killed tonight by Mrs. A. P. Marks Smith, daughter of his former business partner, and a former ward of the man killed.

Mrs. Smith was arrested at the home of her mother, where the shooting took place, and is held under guard there. She made a statement regarding the shooting, which has been made public.

McVey several years ago killed three men in an alleged feud. Later he shot a man on a train and was sentenced to death. This sentence was commuted to life imprisonment and he was later removed to the State hospital for nervous diseases. He regained his sanity and was pardoned.

GIVE LAST WARNING TO DRAFT EVADERS

May Escape Broadcast Publication if Proof of Innocence Is Furnished.

FINAL CHECK BEING MADE

War Department Expects to Begin Making Names Public by End of Month.

[By Associated Press.] WASHINGTON, March 18.—A last opportunity for selective service law evaders to escape broadcast publication of their names as deserters during the World War, was given today by Adjutant-General Harris, of the army.

Persons who have reason to believe that they will be charged with evading the draft, but who did not actually do so, the adjutant-general announced, may escape the odium of being publicly branded as deserters unjustly by communicating all the facts of the case to him without delay.

Final Check of Lists. The final check of the draft evader lists is now being completed by former members of the draft boards. By the end of the month, the War Department expects to begin making the lists public through the newspapers, and by furnishing copies to city, State and Federal police, detective agencies, the American Legion and other patriotic societies.

In addition Secretary Weeks will ask Congress when it reconvenes to provide funds to enable the War Department to pay a reward of $50 to any person who delivers to the military authorities a deserter from the draft. Funds on hand now do not permit paying the full reward.

50,000 Names. The department's list of draft evaders, which is originally reported to the provost marshal general, numbered nearly 40,000 names, has been reduced by careful checking.

COURT OF CLAIMS RENDERS IMPORTANT TAX DECISION

Federal Government May Have to Refund Big Sum in Income Returns of Estates.

[By Associated Press.] WASHINGTON, March 18.—The Federal government today lost an important income tax suit when the United States Court of Claims held that every estate, the net amount of which exceeds $50,000 and which has been or is hereafter compelled to pay the Federal estate tax, is entitled to deduct the amount so paid from its income tax returns.

The effect of the decision, should it be sustained by the Supreme Court, to which the government noted an appeal, will be that the government will not only be compelled to refund all taxes already collected from the estates under such circumstances, but will be unable to collect similar amounts from estates in the future.

The court awarded a judgment for $165,075 in favor of Senator Underwood, of Alabama; Alan H. Woodward and Reginald Barrister, as executors of Joseph H. Woodward, in a suit to reverse the action of the commissioner of Internal Revenue in refusing to allow as a deduction unpaid amounts from estates in the future.

Chicago Gunmen's War Continues. [By United News.] CHICAGO, March 18.—There appears to be no end to the bloodshed in Chicago's "bloody Nineteenth" Ward. Giuseppe Nuzzo, a political worker for one of the two warring factions, was standing last night in front of a cigar store. A green automobile containing eight or ten men drew up. The occupants opened fire on Nuzzo with sawed-off shotguns.

Incidentally, despite the fact that Mrs. Upton has charge of all women's activities under the national committee and has been generally conceded as "first in line" for the choice to be handed out by President Harding to her sex, Mrs. Upton does not want to hold office.

Woman in Harding's Cabinet to Head Department, Says Mrs. Upton

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Women are going to play an important part in the Harding administration. The President not only has been won over completely to the plan of establishing a special woman's department of the government, with a woman Cabinet member at its head, but plans to outdo all other administrations in appointing women to important positions.

This was revealed by Harriet Taylor Upton, a member of the Republican National Committee, in the course of an interview here today.

Incidentally, despite the fact that Mrs. Upton has charge of all women's activities under the national committee and has been generally conceded as "first in line" for the choice to be handed out by President Harding to her sex, Mrs. Upton does not want to hold office.

PERSHING ASSAILS TRAITORS PLOTTING TO SPLIT U. S. AND ALLIES

Denounces Persons of Foreign Birth Who Seek Freedom of America to Spread "Political and Warlike Propaganda," to Weaken Ties of Friendship.

[By Associated Press.] NEW YORK, March 18.—General John J. Pershing, speaking before a crowd which packed Madison Square Garden tonight at one of the greatest patriotic demonstrations here since the signing of the armistice, bitterly denounced persons of foreign birth who seek the freedom of this country to spread "political and warlike propaganda" to weaken the ties of friendship between the United States and her allies in the late war.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the American Legion and other patriotic societies as a protest against the recent mass-meeting arranged to voice objection to the presence of French colonial troops in occupied Germany described as "The Horror on the Rhine." It was called to order by Colonel Frank Calbraith, national commander of the American Legion.

Pershing Assails Bolshevism. General Pershing, paying tribute to foreign-born citizens who served under him in the Philippines, Mexico and France, declared it was entirely proper that foreigners should cling to the folk lore, literature and music of the native land, but he assailed those who seek to dictate American questions and political policies by the standards of their own countries.

"We have no quarrel with the Americans of foreign birth," he said. "We want them to know that America is an inspiration, that it is something spiritual, a goal toward which we aim. But we do object to the foreign-born citizen who attempts to decide an American question for a foreign reason."

Can Be No Dual Citizenship. "In America there can be no place for those who, while claiming equal citizenship with us and enjoying its privileges under our flag, yet conceive the allegiance to another country. There can be no such thing as dual citizenship in America. Under no guise can this country be made the breeding place of intrigue. We welcome all those who honestly desire to become American citizens and adopt America as their own, but

SIXTY-TWO AWARDS IN SALES CAMPAIGN

Seven-Thousand-Dollar Home Is Capital Prize Offered by the Evening Dispatch.

GIVE FIVE AUTOMOBILES No One Loses, as 10 Per Cent Commission Is Paid All Workers on Money They Turn In as Subscriptions to Afternoon Paper.

It is the desire of nearly every worth-while person to own their own home. In these times rented property is very expensive and in many cases undesirable. This is the day of home owning, and any one who is in a financial position to buy a home or to build one is doing so.

The Evening Dispatch has made it possible for some one to have a desirable home of their own, costing $7,000, and the best part of it all is that this home is to be given away. It has often been said that one can't expect to get something for nothing. The home that the Evening Dispatch is going to give away on May 28 is not to be given in that manner. It is to be given to the member of the Salesmanship Club who is the best subscription salesman as a reward for spare time effort in helping to increase the circulation of that newspaper from now and May 28.

From a purely financial viewpoint one may earn an unusually large salary if he or she is fortunate enough to be the winner of this home. It means just $7,000 a week for ten weeks between now and the close of the campaign. Pretty big pay for spare-time effort, isn't it? And then combine with that the real joy and pleasure to be had by putting this $7,000 earned into a desirable home, and the proposition is one that certainly should appeal to every energetic person in this community.

If the home were the only award offered, it would be worth trying for. But such is not the case. There are in all sixty-two awards, totaling more than $17,000 in value. To make the proposition a strictly business one and to assure every worker of being rewarded, it has been arranged to

LOOK FOR ARREST IN DAVIS MURDER CASE

Developments in Slaying of Dinwiddie County Farmer Are Promised by Petersburg Police.

PETERSBURG, VA., March 18.—An arrest in the murder of Charles H. Davis, Dinwiddie County farmer, who was shot Tuesday night while driving along Cox Road on his way home, is expected shortly, according to local detectives who have been working since the case almost night and day since the murder occurred. Who is suspected of the crime that baffled the police for several days was not divulged by the police.

The theory that Davis was shot by persons bent upon robbery has been discarded by the detectives, and while they have not said positively, the probable motive, it is believed that such was the cause of the unidentified parties shooting the old man as he drove along the road just before dark Tuesday night.

RUSSIAN TITLES AT HEAVY DISCOUNT IN MARRIAGE MARKET

Princes and Other Aristocratic Refugees Now Crowding European Bread Line.

[By United News.] BOSTON, March 18.—Russian titles are at a heavy discount in the European matrimonial market, according to Miss Nellie Halliday, of Cincinnati, a passenger on the steamship Pannonia, who could have brought a prince home with her if she had wanted to. She did relief work for the war-stricken countries.

Princes and other aristocratic refugees are now crowding the bread lines at Constantinople, she said. Miss Halliday, who had charge of the hospital where most of the nobility were quarantined, evidently kept close count of her "best" proposals, as she was able to make a fortune in marriage from forty-seven Russian princes. Proposals from the common run of dukes, counts, barons, generals and the like were too numerous for her to keep track of.

She passed them all up for a sweetheart who is awaiting her return to Cincinnati.

Packers' EMPLOYEES VOTE TO STRIKE, 21,482 TO 207

Will Walk Out Unless Plants Agree to Maintain Eight-Hour Work Day.

[By Associated Press.] CHICAGO, March 18.—By a vote of 21,482 to 207, union workers in Chicago packing plants went on record today in favor of strike if they are "unable to induce the packers to maintain the eight-hour work day." Telegraphic reports at union headquarters were sent to "indicate similar strike mobilization" in other packing-house centers throughout the country.

The exact wording of the ballot on which the workers voted follows: "Do you favor and authorize a strike in the event that the government of our organization is unable to induce the packers to maintain the eight-hour work day, and compliance with the agreement entered into with the United States Department of Labor?"

The agreement referred to was a war-time ruling which submitted all wage and hour disputes between the packers and their employees to a Federal arbitrator.

DISCUSS WILSON'S FUTURE IN LEAGUE

Take Up Part Former President Should Play in Revival of Fight.

CONFERS WITH LEADERS

Will Head Democratic Campaign on This International Question if Decided.

[By Robert J. Bender, United News Staff Correspondent.] WASHINGTON, March 18.—The part former President Wilson should play in the forthcoming revival of the league of nations' fight is now the subject of discussion among Democratic leaders. Thus far there is a marked difference of opinion. First, as to whether Wilson should get into the fight at all, and second, as to the tactics he should pursue if he gets in.

The Democratic party in the Senate and in the country will be called upon by its leaders to take a definite stand toward the league issue as in the past. There is growing evidence that its votes in the Senate will be needed by President Harding in effecting the ratification of any treaty on the subject of peace or an association of nations.

To Resume League Fight. That events are moving toward a resumption of the league fight is certain in view of official announcement at the White House Friday, that Harding has begun informal discussions with members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, on the question of an association of nations. The coming of Rene Viviani on a special mission authorized by the French government only emphasizes the fact that America's foreign policy promises shortly to become the center of a new and vigorous battle.

Wilson, it is said, would prefer to confine his activities to the writing of articles, rather in the form of these, on behalf of the general subject of world peace through concerted international action.

These Democrats counseling a more militant policy by Wilson suggest that there is "no chance for doing any more sowing of league seeds until some harrowing is done." In other words, they wish the former President to take up the ground of the opposition first and then proceed with his constructive arguments to awaken support of the league idea.

Confers With Leaders. Wilson already has had several conferences with Democratic leaders on the subject and will have more. He has also conferred with the former chief of the National Committee, Norman Davis and others, have been entertained at dinner at the Wilson home during the last week, and additional conferences are scheduled for the early part of next week.

Early in April, Homer Cummings, former chairman of the Democratic National Committee, and temporary chairman of the San Francisco convention, is scheduled to make an important speech at Pittsburgh. Before that speech is made, it is understood Cummings will have conferences not only with Wilson, but with other Democratic leaders. The speech is expected to be in the form of a keynote, indicating the course the Democratic party will pursue on different subjects, including the foreign policy of the government.

Thus far Wilson has done no writing, it is said. But he is rapidly regaining his strength and will be ready to lead the Democratic campaign on the league question if it is finally decided that he should do so. Until the new administration gives a definite clue as to its intended course of action on the league and treaty of Versailles, however, Wilson, it is said, will say nothing on either subject.
